THE SCRIPS

FOUR-PIECE STRING BAND / EST. 2011

THE SOUND

Original-forward ETX string-band music.

The Scripts are a four-piece East Texas string band with an indie-rock heart. Since 2011, they have carried original songs, old-time fiddle tunes, hymns, and public-domain fragments through listening rooms, art festivals, farmers markets, wineries, breweries, & radio rooms.

Clawhammer banjo, guitar, upright bass, fiddle, concertina, musical saw, and close harmony make a sound that can move from lively and danceable to sparse, modal, and nearly trance-like. The current set is proudly original-forward: new songs shaped by older American forms.

“The lyrics grabbed. And I am a sucker for the minor G dingy-kind of songs.”
